

Sonoma County Regional Parks Equity & Accessibility Framework

Sonoma County Regional Parks, is in the process of developing an Equity and Accessibility Framework. This Framework will be informed and developed with the community, organizations, other government agencies, and you. Our goal is to use data, community feedback, and map the environment to better understand how to address barriers that park visitors experience and help them to have a deeper sense of belonging. Please answer the questions below.

Definitions:

Equity: Focuses on ensuring access and removing barriers that prevent people from having opportunities. It acknowledges that some people may need additional support to compete on a level playing field.

Accessibility: Means designing environments, products, and services in a way that can be easily used by everyone, regardless of their abilities or disabilities, culture, ethnicity, and other characteristics.

Framework: Structured system roadmap to achieve the goals of equity and accessibility. It outlines principles, processes, and best practices to guide decision-making.
