

Tolay Lake Regional Park

- PARK OFFICE
- FEE STATION
- PARKING
- ADA-ACCESSIBLE PARKING
- ADA-ACCESSIBLE RESTROOM
- PICNIC TABLES
- HORSE FACILITIES
- WAYFINDING INFO
- GATE
- VISTA POINT
- DISTANCE (MILES)
- MULTI-USE TRAIL
- TREES
- AGRICULTURE FIELDS
- MARSH

Tolay Lake is a spiritual center and a cultural landscape for the Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria, who are comprised of Coast Miwok and Southern Pomo tribal citizens. Coast Miwok people are the original descendants of the Tolay Valley. The Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria are Regional Park's partners in stewarding the park's cultural and natural resources.

